

A Description of Jesus

This was interesting. It is meant to just inspire... 'not to be a matter of fact ' It is a historical book, yet we really do not know what Jesus our Lord looks like (according to the Scriptures). But, this still is interesting! Please, do not take this as 'Scripture or as a fact '

Written by Publius Lentullus, President of Judea, in the reign of Tiberius Caesar, to that Monarch in Rome. (Purchase this book #41 at Bromer Booksellers Inc .on the web)

"There lives at this time in Judea a man of singular virtue, whose name is Jesus Christ, whom the barbarians esteem as a prophet, but his followers love and adore him as the offspring of the immortal God.

He calls back the dead from the graves and heals all sorts of diseases with a word or a touch. He is a tall man, well shaped and of an amiable and reverend aspect, his hair color that can hardly be matched, falling into graceful curls, waving about and very agreeably couching upon his shoulders, parted on the crown of his head, running as a stream to the front after the fashion of the Nazarites; his forehead high, large and imposing; his cheeks without spot or wrinkle, beautiful with a lovely red; his nose and mouth formed with exquisite symmetry; his beard, and of a color suitable to his hair, reaching below his chin and parted in the middle like a fork; his eyes bright blue, clear and serene, look innocent, dignified, manly and mature.

In proportion of body most perfect and captivating; his arms and hands delectable to behold. He rebukes with majesty, counsels with mildness, his whole address, whether in word or deed, being eloquent and grave.

...He is temperate, modest and wise. A man for his extraordinary beauty and divine perfection, surpassing the children of men in every sense".
